Located on a flat 1100sqm block of land, this solid three bedroom brick home would suit either the first home buyer or even the savvy developer as there is the possibility of adding a second dwelling (STCA). Situated in Mowbray and only a stones throw to the Mowbray Golf Course, this is a rare opportunity for all those budding golfers. This home has had the bathroom renovated and aluminium windows fitted, there is also a second toilet for added convenience. The low maintenance yard is ideal for the growing family with ample room for the swing set, trampoline or even the boat, trailer or caravan. The separate garages has a personal access door and an electric roller door. With the local primary school and the Mowbray shopping complex just a short stroll away this home would suit a variety of purchasers.
