Number 9 Phillip Street is a neat two-bedroom home which has excellent street appeal. This hardiplank home has some excellent extras including a security camera system, roller shutters on all windows and has a lovely North facing front veranda offering lovely views. With a little internal cosmetic makeover, you could have the perfect investment property or first home.* Both bedrooms are quite generous and the bathroom has been renovated* Gas heating and hot water service, electric cooking plus air conditioning* The third bedroom has been transformed into a dining area however could easily be reinstated as a third bedroom* Roller shutters and security camera system* Oversized single garage, concrete floor, light and power, separate BBQ area & garden shed* Good location close to local shops and a beautiful little park next door.
