Seeking a tranquil escape with a touch of luxury? This meticulously maintained residence offers the perfect opportunity to embrace a serene lifestyle. Nestled on a private, low-maintenance block at the end of a cul-de-sac, the property boasts a picturesque bush setting, ideal for those seeking peace and quiet. Imagine unwinding on your expansive covered deck, surrounded by the beauty of nature. This delightful space features a built-in bar, fireplace, TV connection, and bistro blinds, providing year-round comfort for entertaining or simply relaxing amidst the tranquil bush backdrop. Bi-fold doors seamlessly connect the outdoor area to the stunning country-style kitchen, fostering a social and engaging atmosphere. The well-appointed kitchen boasts a 6-burner gas cooktop, dishwasher, and island bench, making meal preparation a delight, whether for intimate gatherings or grand celebrations. The air-conditioned master bedroom offers a haven of relaxation, featuring an ensuite and a spacious walk-in robe. The house offers three good-sized bedrooms (one with a ceiling that's not quite legal height) and a good-sized modern bathroom. Two separate living areas provide ample space for families or those who desire a dedicated media room, ensuring everyone has a place to unwind or pursue their hobbies. The impressive 6m x 13m remote-controlled shed offers the perfect blend of functionality and leisure. Secure parking for three vehicles is available, along with a dedicated workshop space and an additional storage area. This versatile space can easily be adapted into a home office, perfect for those who work remotely. Enjoy the convenience of a nearby park just across the road, ideal for afternoon strolls, dog walks, or simply enjoying the fresh air. There is a large park for the kids just down the road and the home is a short drive to the Bundamba TAFE & Railway Station and only a short drive to Primary & Secondary Schools, shops and highway access to Brisbane or Toowoomba. The Oaks Shopping Village with IGA is just a two-minute drive away, ensuring your daily needs are met with ease. Additionally, Bundamba State Primary School and the train station are conveniently located within a five-minute drive, offering excellent connectivity. Don't miss out on this exceptional opportunity!
