Nestled in the heart of Portsea and sitting on a generous 2138sqm (approx.) lot, this incredible home offers an enviable coastal lifestyle with all the hallmarks of a classic Peninsula beach house. Designed by renowned architect, Robert Robertson, the property boasts stunning low maintenance gardens and combines timeless charm with modern amenities for a truly unique and comfortable living experience. Accessible from both Sahara Court and Wimbledon Court, the property features 5 spacious bedrooms adorned with woven sisal carpet, 3 bathrooms, 2 car garage, and its own championship size tennis court and cabana for relaxation and entertainment. Sliding doors in the master bedroom, lounge, kitchen and living room open to a north-facing entertaining deck and sparkling pool, allowing you to enjoy the outdoors in style. The interiors are bathed in natural light, thanks to high ceilings, large windows, and skylights down the main hall. Stay comfortable year-round with hydronic heating, ceiling fans, and cosy open fireplace in the lounge. The kitchen features a large L-shaped island bench with stone top, gas cooktop, and premium Miele appliances. Located within walking distance to Shelley Beach and just minutes to Portsea Village, Sorrento Golf Club, Point Nepean National Park, Portsea Golf Club, Sorrento Village, and Portsea Back Beach, this property provides the ultimate coastal lifestyle.
