Designed with entertaining in mind, this substantial home has weathered with age and is now awaiting a new lease on life. With solid bones, lovely views and a spectacular in-ground swimming pool and spa, the end result can truly be something special. With three bedrooms, huge living spaces and loads of potential, a smart renovation will really add value to this home and create a modern, easy living, spacious layout - set to serve it's lucky new owners for decades to come. Surrounded by executive homes, typical of it's era, while offering great street appeal, there is so much more once you venture inside. The large undercover outdoor area overlooks the backyard, the perfect place to laze away the afternoons while watching the kids swim in the pool. Ready to be enjoyed once again, the integrated spa is fully tiled along with the pool - finishes you rarely find today. The elevation ensures the cooling breezes and stunning views, the setting is private and the location convenient. This rare opportunity is one that is not to be missed, roll up your sleeves, design your new layout and get to work.- Pest and building inspection report available on request
