If you've been waiting for a home where all the hard work has been done for you, then this is the one you need to add to your home open list. Renovated to a high standard the sellers have thought of all the small details so you don't have to. On top of all this the home offers gated side access for storing the caravan or boat plus stunning established gardens for those that like the outdoor living. From the minute you walk in prepare to be impressed. The theatre and master bedroom are to the front and can be closed off from the main living space. The minor bedrooms are all to the rear and come with their own bathroom and kids activity area. The main living is a lovely light and bright space with a gorgeous kitchen to compliment it. To the rear is a stunning alfresco which is expansive and comes with a large built in bbq and outdoor kitchen. If that isn't enough then the gardens are immaculate and you have an abundance of established trees to offer that extra privacy. Have a read of the features and then come and see this stunning family home for yourself.
