Available from 26/06/2024. Sitting on a fully fenced 1026m² parcel of land, this immaculate home offers an abundance of space for your family to enjoy. Located at the end of a very quiet cul-de-sac, this property is a wonderful opportunity for tenants searching for a home. A park at the end of the street adds more area for the kids to play. Just a few minutes walk from this location is the Bowen High School in one direction and the Bowen Golf Club and Queens Beach in the other direction. Inside this lovely property you are greeted with a large open plan living area with raked timber ceilings, modern kitchen and bathroom as well as three spacious bedrooms and internal laundry. Off the side of the house are two HUGE undercover decks that offer ample outdoor entertaining space. Breezes flow this home beautifully and the home is also fully air-conditioned. For those of you needing storage, the one bay shed provides ample secure storage and car parking. There is another bathroom also fitted to the rear of shed. More car parking is available right by the house with a sail shade for added protection. The yard surrounding this home is meticulously maintained and will be wonderful for the kids to play and enjoy. A rare opportunity to secure an immaculate home for your family. Available for viewing after the 26/06/2024.
