Family living doesn't get much better than this spacious, situated in a quiet and friendly neighbourhood. Occupying a sensational position, close to parkland, Glengala Village and public transport, this solid three bedroom home boasts two living spaces including a flexible office or studio room. The contemporary open plan layout is visible from the welcoming entrance where the first of two living spaces is a formal lounge with bay windows to the front garden. The master bedroom is nearby and includes a walk-in robe and ensuite with shower. Sharing the family bathroom, the family wing includes two further bedrooms each with built in robes. Adopting an open plan design, the generous family space includes a dining area with a view to the huge under cover pergola, family lounge and a bright kitchen with breakfast benchtops. Additional features include ducted heating, split system cooling and roller shutters. A sought after address, this large family home is set in a fantastic location within walking distance to multiple quality primary and secondary schools, close to numerous reserves, public transport and short drive to Sunshine Plaza and the western highway.
