Take a walk back in time and step into one of the best kept homes in Tamworth! Situated in a quiet cul-de-sac, this federation styled home radiates immense street appeal with eye catching red brick, established trees and gardens offering you a sense of warmth and comfort. As you enter through the front door you are greeted with wide hallways and wooden cornices, the high ceilings and magnificent light fittings will have you excited to step inside. As you make your way through the home discover an abundance of space with four great sized bedrooms all boasting built-in robes, the master room has its own ensuite attached providing luxury in your own private space. This stunning residence offers a formal lounge, along with a separate formal dining area that flows out into the main living area, finished with polished parquet flooring and large glass doors that allow natural light to pour into this wonderful space. The outdoor pergola entertaining area is fully tiled with the option of the roof being both open or closed overlooking the pool, perfect for family events or hosting gatherings. All of this situated on a great 824sqm block. The perfect place to call home for you and your family awaits! Call Justine 0459 226 570 or Isabel 0457 123 257 for more information or inspection times.
