Are you tired of looking for your ideal house ? Here in a quiet cul de sac in Port Broughton, Yorke Peninsula is an allotment of approximately 1000m² with modern shed. Original owners cleared an area for building a house many years ago! Short walk to school, town centre and beach. Shed is approximately 30x20 with concrete floor, power, light and tap outside. You can secure the location and build when suits you - no time restraints for building. RLA 110
