Are you looking for a unique and charming property with a rich history? Then don't miss this opportunity to own a piece of Wallaroo's heritage! This 2 bedroom, 1 bathroom White Welsh Cottage was built around 1860 and was home to the Sisters of St Joseph for nine years from 1869. St Mary MacKillop, Australia's first saint, also stayed at this premises during her visits to Wallaroo. It is situated on a generous 819m<sup>2</sup> allotment in a great location, close to shops, schools, and the beach. Whether you are looking for a cozy family home, a holiday retreat, or an investment property, this cottage offers endless possibilities. You can enjoy its historic charm as it is, or renovate it to suit your taste and needs. Don't miss this rare chance to own a piece of Wallaroo's history!
