Located right across from Silverton Primary School, this property offers an ideal family-friendly setting within walking distance to essential amenities. It's the perfect opportunity for a new family to create their future in this welcoming home. Set on an elevated allotment, the home features a formal lounge with solid timber floors, accessible from the front entrance. Alternatively, you can enter through a charming and shaded pergola located just beyond the carport, which leads to a central foyer. The comfortable dining area seamlessly connects to a quality kitchen with plenty of cupboard space, abundant natural light, and a brand-new gas stove. Moving forward, you'll discover the family bathroom, a separate toilet, and the laundry. To the left, you'll find the bedroom zone, comprising three bedrooms, each equipped with built-in robes. A private pergola extends from the north side of the dwelling, leading to the leveled and concrete-paved rear yard. This space is ideal for outdoor activities or has great potential for creating a covered outdoor living area in the future. Additional features include ducted heating, a split system air conditioner in the lounge, solar panels, roller shutters on the front and rear windows, and a fantastic storage area or cellar underneath the house. The property is securely enclosed by a quality colorbond fence with a roller gate. The front yard has been concreted to provide ample off-road parking, accommodating up to four cars comfortably. This well-priced family package presents an excellent opportunity for first-time homebuyers to secure a comfortable, long-term living space. You can inspect this property with confidence today!
