Nestled within Pyrmont's prestigious Jacksons Landing waterfront precinct, "The Elizabeth" unveils an extraordinary residence of unparalleled sophistication. This opulent three-bedroom, two-bathroom apartment, perched serenely on the ninth floor's northwest corner, basks in the sun's gentle embrace from dawn to dusk. Its seamless integration of indoor and outdoor spaces, facilitated by a sprawling wrap-around balcony, crafts an environment that is both welcoming and ideal for social gatherings. Boasting an expansive 174 square meters of meticulously designed living space, this apartment elevates the concept of urban luxury. Mesmerizing, direct waterfront views of Sydney Harbour and the lush adjacent parklands transform each day into a captivating visual masterpiece. The oversized master suite, complemented by a lavish ensuite, offers a private sanctuary with commanding water vistas, while the two additional bedrooms generously cater to occupants' spatial needs. One of these bedrooms is privileged with enchanting "gun barrel" views of the iconic Anzac Bridge, which graces the evening with its painterly pink sunsets.
