Tucked in a quiet enclave of the tightly held Armytage building, this spacious residence exudes opulence. Thoughtfully and meticulously renovated with an eye for quality, resilience and effortless function, this serene home provides sanctuary from the bustling lifestyle that's just an elevator ride away. Graced with a bright corner position, the residence is appointed with marble, gold hardware, chevron oak wood floors and extensive built in functionality that makes it a delightful breeze to settle into. Boasts an open plan living and dining with integrated storage and a bright office nook blessed with a uniquely mesmerising vista down Chapel Street as far as the eye can see. A sleek stone kitchen is fitted with a full suite of Miele appliances (induction cooktop and dishwasher). Two robed bedrooms with ample natural light share a pristine bathroom appointed with a luxurious walk in shower and a separate fitted laundry room. The home also features a balcony, extensive storage in every available niche, ducted air conditioning and a physical car spot for one. In a building that provides all the modern conveniences at your fingertips including gym, pool, sauna and a live-in caretaker with the Central Green open space in your back yard and an elevator ride to the Vogue Plaza for groceries or the Como centre to catch a movie. Step onto Chapel Street for restaurants, cafes and trams or a little further on to South Yarra Train Station
