As you make your way along the newly improved road that leads to the property, anticipation builds for the rural retreat that awaits. The road enhancements ensure easy access while maintaining the property's seclusion and tranquility. Nestled within a fully fenced house block, this fairy tale rural retreat in Underwood offers not only a sense of security and privacy but also a canvas for your creative aspirations. The beautifully crafted mud brick home showcases the artistry of Middle Earth Constructions, while modern comforts seamlessly intertwine with the property's unique charm. As spring approaches, excitement grows for the flourishing transformation of the productive fruit forest. Imagine the vibrant explosion of colours as the trees burst into full bloom, creating a stunning panorama that embraces the changing seasons. This idyllic scene is framed by 28ha of quintessential Tasmanian bush scenery, where nature's beauty takes centre stage. Whether you're seeking a serene sanctuary to call home or a retreat that transports you to a world of rustic elegance, this property offers the perfect canvas for your dreams to unfold. Embrace the tranquillity of rural living while being only 20 minutes from Launceston CBD and surrounding amenities.
