In a Rural/Residential area this Mud brick and weather board historical building on just under two acres of land, oozes character with pressed iron walls and high ceilings and a secret cellar. The sellers purchased this property some time ago to restored to it to its former glory. However, due to unforeseen circumstances the restoration of the 11 room (approx minimum 4brm x 1bth) project has now become to a regrettable end. This unique property is being sold as is wiwo, with lots of building materials to finish the job. So this is a rare opportunity for a brave and bold person not afraid of hard work, you may be a handy person or retired builder that would love to finish restoring this historic property then you need to give me an urgent call for a private inspection.
