Overflowing with far-reaching sunlit space on the ninth floor of elegant Temple Court, this breath-taking 2-bedroom apartment rises above the pack with period perfection and low-rise luxury in the heart of the city. Discover a flexible open layout with a far-reaching living / dining zone naturally lit by a breath-taking row of openable casement windows offering a large amount of light. Under soaring 2.9 metre ceilings, this picture-perfect scene captures Melbourne in all its glory! • Iconic Temple Court built in 1924 and fully repurposed by Peddle Thorp in 2001 • 2 large bedrooms with mirrored built-in robes and light-filled. • Streamlined kitchen with stainless-steel appliances including a full-sized dishwasher • Large, concealed laundry with a sink • Floating timber floorboards • New carpet, paint and blinds • Stylish exposed beams and pipes • Recessed down-lighting • Secure intercom entry with lift access The luxury living is magnificently matched by a CBD location so close to transport choice, laneway cafes, Yarra River fitness trails and boutique shopping choices. This is the life! For more information, please contact Glenn Donnelly today on 0419 998 235.
