Located in an elevated area and set well back from a quiet rural road, this comfortable home sits on 5 acres and enjoys peace & privacy along with pleasing views of native surrounds. The home radiates a warm & inviting feel and features open plan living & dining with hardwood timber floors and a country kitchen with slate flooring. Two good-sized bedrooms, one of which includes a loft area which provides great storage space or can even accommodate a small additional sleeping area. A large covered deck off the living area provides an appealing setting for relaxing outside and enjoying the views & sunny aspect. Other outdoor features include a small studio, a workshop & carport, additional garden shed, multiple produce gardens and a dam. The land is mostly comprised of gently-sloping native bush with some cleared area. Enjoy a relaxed, semi-self-sufficient lifestyle in your own private setting with no views of neighbours or roads. All while keeping within comfortable reach of Hobart city, approximately 30 minutes away. Call today for more information and to arrange an inspection.
