Rosebery Rosebery has been turning heads because of its warehouse conversions, creative spaces and foodie hangouts. And although there are still elements of grit, Rosebery is coming into its own and Sydneysiders can't get enough of it. With deep roots in industry Rosebery has a strong working class ethos. However, in recent times Rosebery has been switching gears as it adopts a burgeoning foodie and designer scene. Developers have also been busy transforming areas of the neighbourhood, but it's the warehouses which have been given a new lease on life that are putting Rosebery on everyone's radar.
