Light-filled, appealing and immediately liveable, this brick home offers a wonderful family start, or excellent investment opportunity to a range of buyers, providing all amenities in a brilliant location. With nothing to do but simply move in and start living, upon entry the home welcomes you to a great sized lounge area that leads you through to the light filled and functional kitchen and family dining area that steps out to a paved pergola area ready to entertain guests and family all year round. The backyard features a decent size garden for the aspiring green thumb. The master bedroom and two additional great sized bedrooms are located down the hall and all feature built-in robes and have access to the large central two way family bathroom. Extra Features of the home include gas wall furnace heating, external blinds, ceiling fans, garden shed, separate toilet and single carport. All of this is superbly positioned only moments away to a childcare centre, Bellbridge primary school, public transport and with parkland located behind the home offering quiet enjoyment and room for children to play.
