This solid brick terrace is perfectly positioned to take full advantage of a super inner northern lifestyle where you have a choice of strolling into central Carlton or Fitzroy with a myriad of great lifestyle attractions on offer. On one of Carlton's best known streets, the home offers expansive open plan living featuring hardwood timber floors and leads to a private courtyard garden that doubles to allow for off-street parking. Upstairs there are 2 oversized double bedrooms with built in robes that are flooded with natural light and a large central bathroom. Low maintenance living at its best, it is a super opportunity for a buyer who has been looking at Victorian terraces without the headache of renovating. Just move in and enjoy!
