This outstanding property is situated on Treloggens Track on the edge on Georges Bay providing fabulous sunny bay views and privacy. This sunny haven offers 3-4 bedrooms with a spacious open plan kitchen, dining and living area that naturally soaks up the Georges Bay atmosphere with a cosy wood heater adding to the ambience. There are 3 bedrooms upstairs with the bathroom. Downstairs has another bedroom or hobby room with a storage area. The property has a terrific deck area looking over the bay, providing that extra living space during the summer months. Consisting of a large approx. 2028m² block, with a lovely leafy feel, plenty of space, with good parking and also having vehicle access from both Treloggens Track and St Helens Point Rd, to complete the perfect package. Situated on the Bay, this property faces north and provides direct access to walking tracks around the bay and into town. If you are looking for a private, virtual waterfront location with access to great fishing, beaches and walking tracks then this one is definitely worth a look! St Helens and surrounds boasts popular mountain bike trails, is renowned for its fishing spots both onshore and off, and attracts visitors all year round. Not to mention being the gateway town to the world-famous Bay of Fires region to the north, with its exquisite beaches and natural attractions. With amenities including cafes and restaurants, galleries and shops, supermarkets, hospital and medical centre, and school. St Helens is a mere (5km) approx. drive from the property.
