Nestled within the historic confines of the former Victoria Brewery, this charming two-bedroom apartment boasts a prime position in the heart of East Melbourne, offering an enticing blend of luminous urban living and captivating Northerly panoramas. Perched on the 9th floor of 'The Victoria' building, the apartment showcases a cleverly designed layout that maximizes space utilization. The generously lit living room, adorned with floor-to-ceiling windows, frames spectacular Northern views, creating an immersive experience. The main area seamlessly integrates an open-plan dining and kitchen space, equipped with stainless steel appliances for added convenience. Both bedrooms are spacious, while the master bedroom extends the allure of breathtaking views with a built-in robe. A centrally located bathroom complements the accommodation with a walk-in shower. Additional highlights of the apartment encompass a private balcony, reverse cycle air conditioning, an intercom system, secure car space, and exclusive access to the gymnasium as well as a picturesque rooftop swimming pool. Positioned in a location unparalleled in its convenience and with views that inspire envy, this residence undoubtedly merits a top spot on your priority list as you immerse yourself in the vibrant pulse of inner Melbourne living, with Fitzroy Gardens, Melbourne CBD, Collingwood, and Fitzroy just minutes away.
