

92 Kerry Street, Sanctuary Point, NSW 2540

Sold House

Friday, 10 November 2023

92 Kerry Street, Sanctuary Point, NSW 2540

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 601 m2

Type: House

Tim Houston
0244439666

James Lewis
0414715668

$572,500

This updated and well presented three bedroom brick and tile home is situated on approx. 601sqm block and located on a popular street close to the water, shops, country club, and schools. Offering a fantastic opportunity for first home buyers and investors alike. Upon entering, you'll immediately notice the fresh, new carpet, blinds, and paint that enhance the overall appeal of this residence. The master bedroom features a built-in robe, providing ample storage space for your belongings. The kitchen is neatly designed and well-maintained, with new bench top and offering a functional space for cooking and meal preparation. Slate flooring adds a touch of elegance and durability to the kitchen, dining and hallway. Adjacent to the kitchen is a delightful sunroom or rumpus room, providing additional space for relaxation or entertainment. The dining area and open plan lounge create a seamless flow, perfect for spending quality time with family and friends. There are plenty of convenient parking options, including a carport and open parking spaces, ensuring ample room for vehicles. The generous rear yard is a standout feature, providing plenty of space for outdoor activities and entertainment plus there is also a storage shed. This property has already had all the hard work done and is now ready for you to come and make it your own.