Concealed behind the traditional facade of this 6m fronted Victorian semi lies a stylish contemporary home that brings a bold new dimension to a timeless classic. Recreated by the award-winning team at Kreis Grennan Architecture, the two-storey home's pavilion-style extension soaks up the sunshine with huge windows and lofty vaulted ceilings that enhance the sense of space. A select palette of materials and crisp monochrome colour scheme deliver a fresh vision of urban style with a respectful nod to the industrial past of St Peters while offering every creature comfort. Opposite the wide open expanse of Camdenville Oval and 100m to Aslan Coffee, the three-bedroom home is a superb entertainer with a choice of alfresco living spaces and a lush landscaped backyard with Sydney Park's nature trails and running tracks at the end of the street.
