Discover peace and quiet in this cozy 3-bedroom, 1-bathroom home tucked away behind a privacy screen of trees, this retreat offers seclusion, making it an ideal haven for relaxation. Enjoy the refreshing breeze as several doors throughout the home open up to allow natural airflow, filling the space with freshness and light. The interior is a canvas of possibilities, awaiting the touch of a keen visionary to bring out its full potential. Store your vehicles securely in the double garage with roller doors, and keep your tools organized in the tool shed, ensuring convenience and practicality for your daily needs. Embrace the diversity of the land, with grassy open areas, tall pine trees, and native plants harmoniously combining to create a picturesque setting. Imrie Creek meanders through the centre of the property, providing a permanent water source and tranquil swimming holes, adding to the allure of this natural sanctuary. Just 3 kilometres from the pristine waters of Lake Eacham and 10 kilometres from the charming township of Yungaburra, this oasis combines the charm of the local area with the convenience of nearby amenities, offering the perfect blend of tranquillity and accessibility. Don't miss this opportunity to make your dreams of peaceful living a reality. Contact exclusive agent Alex Payne today to arrange a viewing.
