There are so many aspects that this property will fulfill the needs of most people seeking family weekender or a permanent home. Reluctantly it's time to for the current custodians on this tranquil 26-acre retreat to move on. This property has so much to offer, the 2-bedroom home has been freshly painted inside and out, new bathroom, new timber decking and new Jindara wood heater for cosy winters. The kitchen is a mix of yester year with solid fuel stove (wood burning) and vintage cabinets, there is a modern stove as well. The informal gardens feature a combination of native and exotic plants which is a garden enthusiasts delight with native rock lilies, flannel flowers, bulbs and beautiful Wisteria and sweet-smelling Jasmine. From the grass tennis court to the sandstone and timber outdoor entertaining area there is so many features to provide active people with lots to enjoy, especially the wet Sclerophyll bush gulley with walking track. There are large cleared grassed areas suitable for horses and other grazing animals with a shelter in one paddock or just for the enjoyment. The large 140 m2 work/storage shed is the perfect place to embrace hobbies, storage shipping containers for bits and pieces, chook yard and 2 buses and caravan perfect for guests. There is a water bore (currently inoperative), dams and ample water storage with 4 large water tanks.
