This recently renovated four to five bedroom family home with spectacular views of the Mersey River is something that needs to be considered. The floorplan of this home is extremely practical, whether you're needing five bedrooms, a second lounge room or a dedicated office to work from home. The recently renovated living and kitchen areas that flow out to the west facing front deck are the real drawcard of this beautiful home, with their amazing views of the river, light and bright Scandi inspired colour schemes. Set on just over 1000m² in Ambleside this beautiful family home ticks a lot of boxes, whether you are looking for something nearby the City of Devonport, areas for the family to go for a walk or ride, a block large enough for a big shed or just for the kids and pets to run around under a watchful eye. Ambleside is one of Devonport's fastest growing suburbs with three recent subdivisions going ahead and it's easy to see why families flock to this area.
