This bright and inviting three-bedroom family home boasts a prime location, surrounded by a host of local amenities that enhance its appeal. Situated near the Burwood East Reserve, the convenience of the number 75 tram, and a 24-hour Kmart shopping center, the property offers easy access to essential services and recreational facilities. Inside, the central living area bathes in natural light, leading seamlessly to a spacious kitchen/dining area that overlooks the charming north-easterly rear garden, featuring a magnificent mature Liquid Amber tree. Each of the three bedrooms is generously sized and includes built-in robes, with the main bedroom enjoying a private zone with direct access to a stylish and ample bathroom. Outside, additional features such as a children's cubby house, a double lock-up garage, and ample off-street parking. With a land size of approximately 597 square meters, there's plenty of space for outdoor enjoyment and potential expansion. Complete with heating and cooling systems, this home ensures year-round comfort for its occupants. Whether it's the convenient location, the well-designed interior spaces, or the array of additional features, this home offers a compelling package for families seeking both comfort and practicality in their living environment.
