A lifestyle address for outdoors yet cosmopolitan families, this home is on the market for only the second time since it was built in the 1950s. It occupies a secure corner block of 877.1sqm and embraces single-level living with roomy light-filled interiors, separate formal and informal living/dining spaces and a near-level garden ideal for children and pets.

Well-presented and comfortably appointed, it's move-in ready while allowing scope to capitalise. With bus stops conveniently at your door, it's surrounded by parks, bushwalking, ovals and golf courses all within walking distance or a 5-minute drive, as well as shops, cafes and desirable schools. • High ceilings, timber floorboards, sun-soaked north aspect • Generous main living room and adjoining sunroom/rumpus • Kitchen/family room, with gas cook top and breakfast bar • Outdoor entertaining deck, barbeque area, lush garden • Sizeable bedrooms with built-in robes, main with an ensuite • Light-filled bathrooms, one bathtub, handy separate W/C • Garage with workshop/storage, further off-street parking
