Nestled in one of South Melbourne's most convenient and vibrant areas, this property has been recently updated without compromising on the character and architecture by Daryl Jackson. Positioned on the top floor facing West this unique offering enjoys leafy views and features a private balcony to unwind. Centrally located just a short walking distance to Albert Park Lake, the South Melbourne Market and a 10-minute tram ride to the city. Well-presented and meticulously maintained this property welcomes you with an open plan living space, leading to a freshly painted kitchen equipped with soft closed drawers, electric cooking and generous bench space. Two generously sized bedrooms with the main offering a walk-in robe, a central bathroom with a bath, followed by an integrated laundry for added practicality. Complemented by split system heating and cooling, block out and shade blinds, and a roomy storage space under the staircase. Additionally, there is a secure under cover car space. In the heart of South Melbourne, this property provides a comfortable lifestyle, seamlessly blending recent updates with the area's lively atmosphere.
