Enjoying beautiful summer sunsets over Central Park to the west, Maléa offers residents incredible park views in one of the last remaining homes to be redeveloped in this iconic location. Maléa manifests a new direction of contemporary boutique living in coveted Malvern East. The stoic, enduring form unites with a rich palette, combining textural brickwork, layered concrete planes, and sleek metalwork. A suite of crafted details and subtle design cues unique to the project anchor the built form within the surrounding established architectural fabric. Expansive, full height glazing frames thresholds to private gardens and terraces. Convenience awaits just a short stroll away at the vibrant Malvern East village, where you'll find everything you need for your daily essentials. Indulge in a selection of exceptional cafés, relish in the culinary delights of two of the state's finest Italian restaurants, and discover the convenience of a corner store, newsagent and much more.
