Don't miss the opportunity to own this stylish and stunning home in the sought-after Jindabyne area. This property offers not only a beautifully designed four-bedroom home but also additional infrastructure that sets it apart from the rest. Situated just off the Snowy River Way, this 11-hectare property provides the perfect rural lifestyle. The architect-designed home features a flowing floor plan that maximizes the breathtaking northerly views of the Snowy River Valley. As you enter the home, your eyes will be drawn to the lounge area, with its magnificent views and a cozy wood fireplace. The open plan kitchen and dining area also take advantage of the stunning views and open onto a deck overlooking the garden, yard, and 'chook' run. The master bedroom, located to the right of the entrance, offers a luxurious retreat with 'his and hers' walk-in robes and an ensuite bathroom. On the other side of the entrance, you'll find three additional bedrooms, perfect for children or guests, along with a second bathroom. The separation of the master suite and other bedrooms ensures privacy and comfort for all. Outside, the native gardens are a delight to behold, adding to the natural beauty of the property. For those who love horses or enjoy DIY projects, the 150m² 'Ranbuild' drive-through shed and indoor stables offer endless possibilities. With a great water supply of over 200,000 liters, you can rest assured knowing that your needs will be met. This property truly offers stunning value and is a must-see for anyone seeking a rural lifestyle with all the modern comforts. Contact Dani on 0425 873 587 now to arrange a viewing and secure this extraordinary property for yourself. Don't miss out on this rare opportunity to own a piece of paradise in Jindabyne.
