This fabulous high set, spacious home is located in the ever-sought-after Buddina precinct, just a hop skip and jump from the most amazing beach access. You are sure to feel right at home in this property which is the perfect combination of coastal fever and fabulous family living. Boasting polished wooden floors, white wooden shutters throughout and a newly renovated family bathroom it is an amazing beachside beauty new to the market.

Upon entry to the lower level, you are met with two generous spacious bedrooms - both equipped with Built in Robes and fans. The first bedroom is north facing to the secured front yard whereas the second bedroom has a direct sliding door and access to the backyard. In addition, this level offers a powder room plus shower with a barn sliding door, indoor laundry and direct access to the garage. This area is perfect for the teenagers to nestle away in their own private space, or for your guests to stay in and feel right at home whilst visiting.

The upper level consists of three bedrooms and lovely renovated main bathroom with open lounge and dining. There are two wonderful balconies, one off the front and one at the rear displaying an abundance of natural light and getaway locations! There are so many opportunities to this ab-fab home, you can take it to the next level and create a beautiful home in an amazing location.

Will be sold on or before Auction!
