Positioned perfectly on the banks of the Tamar River and looking directly across to the iconic Batman Bridge this is a perfect Tamar Valley retreat, or indeed, your next home. Situated 10 minutes from Beaconsfield and a comfortable 30 minute drive to Launceston the position is absolutely perfect whether you're looking for a place to get away, or just a comfortable place to call home. The house itself comprises 3 bedrooms, a modern kitchen and dining area, with polished boards, and a fabulous sunken lounge which enjoys views of the Tamar. Outside, you can enjoy views from the front deck and alfresco area alike, and a couple of sheds provide great storage and workshop option. If you're looking for a Tamar Valley Gem, then look no further. Please call to arrange an inspection.
