On a large residential double block is this well presented, 3 bedroom weatherboard home. Featuring an open plan, north facing living and kitchen area with polished timber floors and wood heating. The kitchen has an island bench, plenty of storage and a gas cooker. At the rear of the home is a second living space, offering plenty of room for the family. Outside the garden is well established with plenty of water supply, the property also includes a lock-up garage with roller door and second shed with workshop both with concrete floors. A great opportunity to purchase a family home in a quiet country town, only a short drive from the southwest coast and 30 minutes from all Hamilton has to offer. Inspections are strictly with the selling agent. Contact Sam at Groves Real Estate for more details.
