Love to live on your very own piece of paradise so close to everything but feeling like a million miles from anywhere? This pristine just under twelve acres (approx.) of cleared, near flat land offers you an unrivalled opportunity to build your dream home (STCA) and experience a serene family lifestyle. This rare and very special acreage impresses with its extraordinary peacefulness, beauty and absolute convenience. Design your forever home and enjoy the lifestyle you've always wanted with plenty of room for horses and other animals, gardening or a whooping big mancave (STCA), whatever your heart desires. Children, parents and pets will love awaking every morning amidst the surrounding greenery away from the hustle and bustle yet so very close to everything with Boronia station and shops just an easy eleven minute car trip away (according to google maps), central to Knox City shopping centre, Eastland and eastlink with The Basin Primary School, St Bernadette's Primary and Ghilgai School close by. This wonderful acreage is awaiting your vision, come and take a look, you won't be disappointed.
