Suburb Snapshot Denman Prospect is a suburb currently under development in the Molonglo Valley district of Canberra, located within the Australian Capital Territory, Australia. It is named in honour of Lady Denman GBE, the wife of the fifth Governor-General of Australia, The Right Honourable The Lord Denman GCMG KCVO PC. The ACT government attempted to sell the entire suburb as one lot to a developer first at an auction, and then by negotiation. However, the Colliers auction on 12 April was a failure with only one registered bidder, and then three months of negotiating led nowhere, and so the Land Development Agency will now develop the suburb itself. Blame for the failure to sell to a developer was placed on new solar access regulations, which meant that blocks had to be bigger, or that house sites had to be excavated into the hillside. It will be the third suburb to be developed in the Molonglo Valley District and the first in stage 2.
