Totally transformed behind a façade of traditionally charming character, this stunning family home links indoor dimensions to outdoor surroundings with seamless success. Two inviting downstairs zones for living surround a central dining domain and an open-plan kitchen where integrated appliances, dual wine fridges, stone, stainless steel and timber surfaces form a fabulous partnership while beyond, a decked alfresco space with a fully fitted alfresco kitchen overlooks an irresistible solar/gas heated plunge pool. Up to five bedrooms and two beautiful bathrooms that deliver family desirability include a master suite with sublime sights over the water towards St Kilda that are also appreciated from a refined retreat and its beautiful balcony. Heated polished concrete floors, integrated indoor/outdoor sound system, heating and cooling, ducted vacuum, secure garage and abundant storage further enhance a home created with entertaining and enjoyment uppermost in mind, ideally situated one block from The Strand.
