This charming Victorian terrace in vibrant Collingwood is now for rent. It has five rooms, including a main room with a balcony, a modern kitchen, and a renovated bathroom. The home features lovely period details and original floorboards. Enjoy a secluded garden, a side courtyard, a separate laundry, and energy-efficient heating throughout. Recently painted and ready to move in, it includes availability to two street parking permits and is close to Smith and Brunswick Streets, with easy access to public transport for Melbourne University and the CBD.
