This Magnificent farm retreat is known as Whispering Gums Nursery, originally purchased as a bare block of land 27 years ago, has now transformed into a lush forest with thousands of trees. The former owner planted 16,000 sandalwood trees, and over time, they've grown wild. With 3 to 24-year-old trees ready for harvest, with the vision to start a tree farm nursery, this retreat offers a peaceful escape. The simple 3-bedroom, 1-bathroom home provides a cozy private haven either for a country getaway from the noisy city or you just want to live the quiet life, this wonderful gem allows you to immerse yourself in nature. Located 80 minutes from Kelmscott and just 18 minutes from Historic York, this property is priced at $1,260,000.
