An Open for Inspection will be held on Saturday the 18th of May, 1pm-1:30pm. Please register your interest. Can you add the finishing touches to this light filled ranch style home? There are so many great features already, and lots of room for a family to enjoy country life within easy reach of the booming regional town of Mansfield. The school bus runs right past the front gate. The floorplan and more information will be added soon, but maybe you want to get in first and book in for the first open for inspection now.
