Indulge in the epitome of luxury living at this architecturally designed five-bedroom, three-bathroom sanctuary nestled in the coveted Crooked Creek Estate at Lake Albert. A mere stone's throw from the shores of Lake Albert, this opulent residence sprawls across a vast 1851 square meter block, promising a lifestyle of unparalleled sophistication. Step inside to experience the grandeur of this instantly impressive home, where light dances through the double-glazed windows and bounces off the high ceilings, exposed beams, and expansive open-plan spaces. The minimalist, sleek custom cabinetry and natural finishes, including natural stone and timber, create a canvas for stylish modern living in neutral tones. The chef-style kitchen is adorned with Miele appliances, including a steam oven and warming drawer. Complete with an integrated fridge and freezer, sprawling stone breakfast bar plus butler's pantry boasting an abundance of storage and prep space. Comfort is ensured with ducted reverse cycle heating & cooling, with each room individually zoned. The main bedroom boasts a walk in robe & a stunning ensuite with freestanding bath. Four additional well-proportioned bedrooms with an ensuite off the fifth, ensuring all family living requirements are achieved. The office is positioned at the front of the home with built in cabinetry and is the ideal setting to work from home.
