Set on generous land of 377 sqms, this substantial home delivers low maintenance flexible living arrangements with a larger than normal residence which is located near Lygon Street cafes and Sydney Road shopping precinct. Consisting of four bedrooms and two bathrooms with two living areas, plus a large kitchen, separate dining room and two spacious outdoor yard areas. The home's highlight is the second storey extension with views across to the east, with a neat bathroom, central lounge/ retreat area with a large bedroom and built in robes. The huge double garage has a remote roller door, access via ROW off Carnarvon Street . The front entrance is greeted by high ceilings with beautiful arches which leads through to the updated kitchen and dining area with a central loungeroom and double doors opening out to a north facing yard. Heating and cooling throughout with good storage, water tanks and a fantastic under cover entertaining outdoor area. This home is the perfect blend of private living spaces with enough room to grow and add value.
