

99 Fencott Drive, Jewells, NSW 2280

STONE

Sold House

Tuesday, 5 March 2024

99 Fencott Drive, Jewells, NSW 2280

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 2

Area: 718 m²

Type: House

Jesse Rowbottom
0421800779

Contact agent

Welcoming to the market for the first time in 43 years, is a much loved 5 bedroom quality home. With only one owner in its history, the home has proven to be the perfect environment to raise a family and entertain guests. The owner has lovingly expressed many memories of family gatherings, and raising multiple generations over the years. The home is located in a tranquil, leafy neighborhood, and is perched on the high side of the street, offering leafy views from multiple points throughout the home. Adorned with timeless period features, this residence exudes character and warmth throughout. Embrace coastal living with the ocean less than 3km from the home, making a beach day only a short drive or leisurely bike ride away. Spending your day in the leafy wilderness is easy from 99 Fencott Drive, with the famous Fernleigh Track less than 1km from the home. Mother nature can be enjoyed from the home, with ocean breezes and leafy views on offer year round. Don't miss your chance to secure a family home rich in both functionality and embrace of its surroundings. - Double car lock up garage with semi internal access - Leafy views - Multiple living areas - Air conditioning throughout - Outdoor entertaining area - High side of the street - 400m from Pacific Highway providing great access to Lake Macquarie and Newcastle - Zoned for Jewells Primary School and Belmont High School - Approximately 2.5km from Belmont Christian College