Presenting this log cabin style home set in a tranquil setting in a secluded part of Dimboola's township. Featuring cathedral ceilings with exposed timber beams with vast windows for natural light and dado boards, this home has a unique country style design. With a striking green colour palette the home has 3 bedrooms all with BIR's with the master highlighting access via a glass sliding door onto the front deck overlooking the front yard. Offering spacious living the lounge room is open plan and has ceiling fan and split system heating and cooling. Gorgeous country style kitchen design that embraces beautiful simplicity with electric appliances, ample cupboard storage including pantry. The family bathroom has separate shower, bath and vanity with added light provided by a skylight. Laundry and separate toilet complete the interior of this home. Outside you will be instantly brought back to nature with the home offering front and rear decks overlooking native cottage gardens with a birdlife presence. The property is approximately 1790m² in size and has a carport, solar system plus rear access.
