This solid brick two-bedroom villa at 9b Takapuna St, offers large spaces and a quiet position at the rear of a small block. Step inside to discover a large living room bathed in natural light, featuring oversized picture windows sitting adjacent to the well-appointed kitchen boasting a free-standing gas cooking theatre and plentiful storage, complimented by a connected meals area. Both carpeted bedrooms come complete with wardrobes and are serviced by a central bathroom with shower-over-bath layout. Outside, the large grassy backyard presents a serene space for relaxation or entertaining. Additional comforts include separate laundry, a handy carport, heating throughout and proximity to local schools, an array of transport options, verdant parks, cafes, and essential amenities.
