This is unquestionably one of the most exclusive harbourfront retreats in Sydney. Poised to admire the tranquillity of the harbour and Oyster Cove Reserve from its exclusive setting in the prestigious 'Wondakiah' complex, this private dual-level sanctuary showcases a flowing layout of exceptional quality and space. It has been elegantly designed to connect multiple formal and informal living spaces open to an entertainers' terrace, emphasising peace, privacy, and luxury. It is a rarity that a home of this calibre and location becomes available, especially one that the same owner has fastidiously maintained since the beginning. Upon entry, you are greeted by a sense of openness and light, with high ceilings and an effortless connection to the outdoors. The expansive living and dining room is perfect for relaxed family living or large-scale entertaining, leading to a generous terrace with sweeping panoramic views. This residence is of house-like proportion, with stunning water views from multiple vantage points and boasting four well-scaled ensuites, a home office/study, a private dining room, and a host of resort-style facilities. Some other notable highlights include timber flooring and floor-to-ceiling glass doors. Set to enjoy incredible peace and privacy, this home is footsteps to Sydney Harbour, close to Waverton Station and village shops. With world-class facilities including indoor/outdoor swimming pools, sauna, spa, tennis courts, fully equipped gym, barbeque area, and landscaped gardens, this is an opportunity to live in one of Sydney's most prestigious estates.
