Welcome to your own slice of paradise in the heart of the rainforest! Soak in the tranquil sounds of the bubbling creek below while relaxing on the expansive decks of the magnificent pavilion-style home. This oasis nestled amidst lush greenery is set to inspire. Recently constructed, the four bedroom home is thoughtfully designed to harmonize with nature, boasting the perfect blend of contemporary elegance and natural allure. The large open-plan kitchen and dining area featuring a Falcon oven, walk in pantry and generous bench space, all flows seamlessly out onto the hardwood deck - perfect for entertaining and bringing the outdoors in. The private main bedroom suite on one side of the home boasts a walk-in-robe and bespoke ensuite with quartz basin and timber cabinetry, while the three other bedrooms on the other side of the home are all an excellent size and include built in robes. Escape the hustle and bustle forever, with Starlink internet allowing you to work from the comfort of your own home, while the large solar panel and battery system supports cost-effective and environmentally friendly living. Over 200m of creek frontage is available to explore, with rock pools for fishing and swimming, as well as numerous bush walking tracks and fruit orchards across the beautiful 2.47Ha property. Accommodate guests or house the teenagers in their own detached studio, or spend hours of fun and unwinding all year round in the heated pool - there's so much to love! Situated 6km to The Channon village and 25km to Lismore with easy access to the coast, this magnificent property is the one for you and your family to love for many years to come. Arrange your inspection with Jack and Troy from Elders Alstonville, or with co-list agent Robbie McRae from LJ Hooker Alstonville today!
