Charming Hobby Farm with Country Ambience

Situated just 15 minutes from both Devonport and Ulverstone, this 6.65 hectare hobby farm presents an ideal lifestyle opportunity. Spanning two titles, the property offers privacy and a true country charm, perfect for those seeking a tranquil rural retreat.

The home, nestled in its serene surroundings, features a central kitchen that seamlessly connects to the living areas, where a freestanding wood heater ensures warmth and coziness throughout the cooler months. The residence includes three generously sized bedrooms, all equipped with built-in wardrobes, and an updated bathroom. Additional spaces include a versatile utility room, a spacious rear porch, and a functional laundry.

The land is thoughtfully divided into five main pasture paddocks, perfect for grazing or farming activities. The property is well-equipped with multiple storage sheds, a traditional barn, cattle yard with ramp, two carports, and a workshop. Reliable water supply is guaranteed with the dam and tanks, providing water all year round.

This property truly embodies the peaceful country lifestyle, offering everything you need to enjoy a rural way of life.
